COVENANT

Having been led, as we believe, by the Spirit of God, to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our personal Savior, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit in Jesus' name, we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly, most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ with the understanding that the Word of God is the final authority.

We engage therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit to work together in Christian love; to strive for the advancement of this association in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote it's prosperity and spirituality; to sustain it's worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the association, the expenses of the association, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations.

We also engage to maintain family and personal devotions; to scripturally educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all gossiping, backbiting or needlessly exposing the infirmities of others, and excessive anger; to abstain from the sale of, and use of destructive drugs or intoxicating drinks as a beverage; to shun pornography; to flee from fornication; to avoid all immoral and illegal activity; and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Savior.

We further engage to watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember one another in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy and in speech; to be slow to take offense, but always ready for reconciliation, and mindful of the rules of our Savior to secure them without delay; to be our brother's keeper whether in discipline or deliverance.

We moreover engage to protect the association from persons desiring to use the organization and its affiliates for personal gain, business ventures, agendas and the like and pledge to not participate in such activity.

STANDARD OF CONDUCT FOR MEMBERSHIP AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION

Our Father in Heaven expects the best from us where holiness (attitude) and discipline (behavior) are concerned. Our lives are both a living sacrifice to Him (Romans 12:1-3) as well as an example to others. This is required of all believers, BUT especially true for the Membership of LTMA. “Membership” in LTMA consists of Master Vision Bearers, Pastors, Licensed and Ordained Ministers, Administrative staff personnel as well as Church Leaders.

Christian Discipleship demands an exacting price from us. In Luke 14, it is clear that we must be willing to sacrifice people, possessions and personal interests, as required. Discipleship will cost the disciple everything...just as it cost Jesus everything. Discipleship requires that the disciple commit to:

- 1) Confrontation of core issues; and
- 2) Development of strong core values.

There are a number of tools and venues that will be afforded to members who desire to press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. As such, members are held to a higher standard because others are following. A little leaven leavens the whole lump. To whom much is given, much (more) is required. It is vitally important that each member know and understand that he or she is a reflection of LTMA and it’s visionary, Apostle Leroy Thompson, Sr. Consequently, a member must never bring reproach on the Lord, their leader, or the association.

STANDARD OF CONDUCT

The Standard of Conduct, which is derived from the Alliance Covenant is a guideline that explains moral conduct expected of the membership of LTMA. A member should be committed to maintain this Standard. A member must conduct themselves in a manner above reproach and consistent with the highest standards of biblical principals, as well as ethical and professional standards. In the event that a member falls short of the established standard, he or she should immediately contact the person to whom they report. Similarly, in the event that a member is aware that the conduct of another falls short of the established standard, they should immediately contact the person to whom they report.

ATTENDANCE

Members are expected to:

- Attend all Visionary Impartations and Circle of Vision conference calls
- Attend all First Tier Meetings (LTMA Impartation Conference, Campmeeting, Prosperity Revival)
- Attend the Second Tier Meeting (SMC2U) hosted by their MVB
- Attend any Second Tier Meeting held in a state adjacent to their state of residence
- Inform their MVB in writing in the event any of the above expectations will not be met.

PATH OF RESPONSE

- First Occurrence – Verbal rebuke
- Second Occurrence -Verbal and written rebuke
- Third Occurrence – Suspension and or dismissal

PURPOSE OF DISCIPLINARY ACTION FOR MEMBERSHIP

1. Discipline within LTMA is not punitive, but restorative. (Galatians 5:1) The motive of discipline is correction, direction and protection.
2. Discipline is leveled at addressing moral, legal, spiritual and/or emotional failures. “Moral failure” involves actions having to do with scriptural violations including, but not limited to, fornication, adultery, use of destructive drugs or intoxicating drinks as a beverage, drunkenness, substance use and abuse. “Legal failure” involves actions having to do with legal violations including, but not limited to, theft, fraud, and embezzlement. “Spiritual and/or Emotional failure” involves actions having to do with spiritual and emotional violations including, but not limited to, disloyalty, murmuring, backbiting, and unfaithfulness.
3. The goal of discipline is NEVER to remove a person from the organization. However, removing a person, for a period of time or permanently, may be required to bring forth and facilitate repentance, reformation and finally restoration, and at times, reinstatement.

DISCIPLINARY LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

The Disciplinary Leadership Council is a subgroup of the Master Vision Bearers that will determine and administer all disciplinary actions in accordance with this Standard of Conduct. While discipline is often applied confidentially, in some cases, a member may be disciplined publicly. This will be subject to the discretion of the Leadership Disciplinary Council.

SCOPE OF DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

The Leadership Disciplinary Council may administer progressive actions such as warnings, probation, suspension, and revocation of membership privileges and duties for no less than sixty (60) days depending upon the circumstances. A member will be expected to:

1. Submit to ministry restoration measures including, but not limited to, reading assignments, the preparation of reflection papers and personal ministry.
2. Submit to supplemental intervention with a recommended or approved agency or organization.
3. Submit to an evaluation and review by the Leadership Disciplinary Council. This Council will ensure preparedness for restoration and in some instances, recommend reinstatement, where appropriate.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All issues pertaining to discipline will be handled with the highest degree of confidentiality, privacy and discretion.
