

It is coming and you are arriving!

“It is coming” is physical.

“You are arriving” is spiritual.

Whatever you are believing for is coming
AND you are arriving in spiritual maturity.

Keep letting ME order your steps. Every instruction from ME leads to maturity.

Some instructions will look like I AM leading you away from what you want but I AM maturing you. You are designed to mature. The physical always follow the spiritual. Focus on spiritual maturity.

Focus on MY instruction! It's already done. It already came, but because the physical is always behind the spiritual in time span, it will look like it's coming but my instructions will lead you to maturity
where it already is!
